WEBINAR

Overview of the Language Access Report

In January, the Vermont Office of Racial Equity published a report on Language Access in Vermont state government. Members of the community are invited to join the Office on Saturday March 18, 2023 for a summary of the report's findings and recommendations followed by a brief question-and-answer session. Registration is required. For accommodations requests, including interpretation, contact AOA.ORE@vermont.gov no later than March 15.
